THE South-
Carolina Gazette.
September 3, 1753. [NUMB. 1003.]

LONDON, May 8.

LETTERS from Ratiſbon acquaint us, that the reſolution of the dyet, dated the 13th of April 1753, in relation to the affair of Eaſt-Frieſland, has been actually tranſmitted to Vienna, under the ſeal of the elector of Mentz; and that the proteſt of the Brandenburgh miniſter has been ſent thither.

London, May 17. Some letters from Ratiſbon ſay, that the Pruſſian miniſters and their friends affect to repreſent the buſineſs of Eaſt-Friezland as a matter of ſtate, and in that light more fit to be conſidered and decided in the dyet than by a court of law or juſtice. There are, however, many who wonder at their zeal in maintaining this opinon, ſince the vote againſt which they have proteſted, pretty evidently ſhews what the deciſion of the dyet would have been, if they had eſteemed themſelves competant judges.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, May 18.

'The court ſeems to be highly pleaſed with the 'laſt diſpatches from our ambaſſador at Conſtantino-'ple, and 'tis expected we ſhall ſoon ſee the fruits of 'a ſecret negotiation ſet on foot in oppoſition to the 'triple alliance concluded at Peterſburgh ſome years 'ſince, as alſo what was the true errand of the mini-'ſter or ſecretary that was ſent about three years ago 'by the kan of Crim Tartary to the court of Ber-'lin. Whether the Porte quarrels with Ruſſia about 'the affairs of Perſia or any other matters, is indiſ-'ferent to us, as it will anſwer our end either way, 'which is to hinder the court of Peterſburgh from 'holding the rod over the heads of our German and 'Swediſh allies. Our court does indeed ſtill affect 'to talk in a pacifick ſtrain, and ſeems very willing 'to adjuſt all differences with England; witneſs the 'tedious conferences in this city between the French 'and the Britiſh commiſſaries: But it is too true that 'our miniſtry fear no power at preſent but Ruſſia; 'and if work can be cut out for the latter, the gene-'ral tranquillity may laſt juſt as long as France and 'her allies find it convenient for them.

'Some people begin to talk of an expedient to 'compromiſe matters between the king and the par-'liament; but whether it will be adopted, or prove 'ſucceſsful, is impoſſible to gueſs, becauſe there is 'no ſolidity in the council of ſtate, whoſe manage-'ment theſe three years paſt in the altercations be-'tween the clergy and the parliament has been really 'weak and ridiculous, and has concluded at laſt with 'a tyrannical ſtretch of power, which might have 'been avoided, had prudence, tempered with reſo-'lution, prevailed in the king's council before theſe 'diſputes grew ſo warm.'

London, May 22. Yeſterday came on in the court of King's Bench in Weſtminſter Hall, a pleading which was not finiſhed, but was to come on again this day, between a baronet and a perſon of diſtinction; who both claim a lady by marriage.

It is reported that the people of Corſica have declared themſelves an independant ſtate.

They take notice in letters from Parma, that the Infant Duke lately received an extraordinary courier from Verſailles, and ſeemed extremely pleaſed with the diſpatches he brought; and though the contents of them are kept very ſecret, the public preſume there is ſomething very important on the carpet for the intereſt of the court of Parma, and ſtill apprehend that the Genoeſe will at laſt be forced to ſell Corſica, notwithſtanding the meaſures they purſue to maintain their authority there, and their begging of foreign ſtates not to ſupply the Corſicans with arms, &c.

CHARLES-TOWN, Sept. 3.

By laſt Veſſels from Providence, we have Advice, that the French have lately actually been at Turk's Iſland, the Caicos's, Heneago, Maguana, and ſome other ſmall Iſlands in the Windward Paſſage, with a Ship of 36 Guns, one Sloop of 16, and two of 12; which they keep conſtantly cruizing from Hiſpaniola to and among thoſe Iſlands: That they talk of ſettling the Caicos's, Heneago, and Maguana, and of running out the Weſtern Half of Crooked Iſland, for the ſame Purpoſe; and alſo of erecting Light-houſes on two Keys at Heneago and one of the Caicos's, near which Places many Veſſels have been loſt for want of them: And that they had loaded and ſent away a Sloop to Cape-François, with ſome of the Brazille-to that had been cut by the Providence People on thoſe Iſlands, and burnt the reſt.—By the French taking Poſſeſſion of theſe Iſlands, our Trade with Jamaica muſt be rendered very precarious, as thereby they obtain the Command of the Windward Paſſage. The Conſequences in Time of War, we leave to better Judges, and to Politicians.

In a North-Carolina Gazette, of the 21ſt of July laſt, we find a Proclamation, iſſued by the Preſident and Commander in Chief of that Province,

"Strictly requiring all officers, civil and military, to apprehend, or cauſe to be apprehended, every perſon, who, under colour or pre ence of authority from his majeſty's officers in South-Carolina, come into the county of Anſon in North-Carolina, and there ſurvey lands by virtue of the ſaid authority: And to bring ſuch offender, before the chief juſtice, or aſſociate juſtices, to be dealt with according to law."
